PURIM represents the height of joy -- so enjoy!

This coming Saturday night/Sunday is the holiday of Purim. Purim is arguably the most joyous holiday on the Jewish calendar. If you would only have one day a year to attend synagogue, Purim might be that day. Purim is celebrated with the 'Four Ms' -- in the following 4 ways:

- 1) Megilla: On Purim we read the Book of Esther, which recalls the attempt of the evil Haman (boo!) to wipe out the Jews of Persia.
- 2) Mishloach Manos: We send gifts of food to friends and relatives ...at least two ready-to-eat food items in each package, delivered by a proxy. The joy of the day increases as we send and receive.
- 3) Matanos L'Evyonim: We don't forget those with less . . . at least 2 gifts of money and/or food to the poor on Purim day.
- 4) Mishteh: The merry, merry meal on Purim day . . . an easy mitzvah to fulfill.

Happy Birthday to: Ephraim Mufson, Natalie Chayet, Helen Bolt, Rebecca Lyss, Alex Lyss, Jack Lyss, Danielle Eisenberg, and Marvin Stein

Happy Anniversary to: Rabbi Ze'ev & Chani Smason

Parshas: Tetzaveh

This week's portion is a haberdasher's dream. Following on the heels of the elaborate details of the construction of the Mishkan, G-d describes to Moses the special garments which are to be worn by the Kohanim during their service. The ordinary Kohanim would wear four special garments, while four additional vestments were to be worn exclusively by the Kohen Gadol (High Priest). All of these garments were woven and crafted from materials donated by the people.

The Torah portion then shifts its attention to G-d's commandments regarding the inauguration ritual for the newly constructed Mishkan, to be performed exclusively by Moses for seven days. The inauguration included Moses' adorning and anointing the Kohanim, and his bringing offerings. On the eighth day, Aaron and his sons would assume their offices as the Kohanim. After then describing the daily offering to be brought in the Mishkan, in the morning and afternoon, the portion concludes with the command to build the last of the Mishkan's structures, the golden altar upon which the incense would be offered twice daily.

Thank you to Howard and Phyllis Loiterstein for donating the Dewar's for La Chaim - please consider making a donation to the shul with of the scotch of your choice.
