The shul is adopting this idea from our Sisterhood that used to prepare a yearly Pushkeh Dinner to help raise money for their coffers. We want to say a BIG "Thank You" to Dr. Jay Pepose and Dr. Susan Feigenbaum for generously sponsoring the purchase of our new pushkehs, and "Thank You" to Bobby Levine for creating the beautiful pushkeh covers.

President's Message

Summer has started, and it is getting hot outside. But we have at least two cool events coming up!

Please join us on Shabbos, June 28, when we will be honored and pleased to officially unveil and dedicate the western wall in the Alper Lobby. The dedication will include two plaques honoring people who contributed to the Capital Campaign – the Wall of Honor and the Scroll of Recognition; a plaque honoring those who helped obtain a loan for the building – our Guarantors; and another plaque honoring those who are helping to ensure our future – through our Legacy Society.

On August 1st and 2nd, please join us as we commemorate the Yahrzeit of Rabbi Isaac Luria, “The Holy Ari,” founder of modern Kabbalah and author of the “Nusach H’Ari” siddur. On Friday evening, August 1, at 6:30 pm, we will welcome Shabbos outdoors on the Kaiser Terrace, followed by Shabbos dinner. On Saturday morning, August 2, we will have a Lunch’n’Learn, featuring special guest speaker, Rabbi Levi Landa, Director of Programming of Chabad of Greater St. Louis. This is an opportunity to learn about the heritage that inspired the founding of our shul.

Just a reminder . . . Rosh Hashana begins on September 25th. If you are thinking about ordering a Memorial Plaque for a loved one, we must receive the order in our office by July 7th.

Thanks to all those who participated in the Photo Directory. I can't wait to see it!

*Beyond Twelve Gates by Rabbi Ze'ev Smason
Parshas Korach June 21, 2014*

Welcome to Beyond Twelve Gates

A California man in rehabilitation for drug addiction and with no cash to his name discovered $125,000 cash in an orange bag, only to return it shortly afterward. Joe Cornell, 52, of Fresno, California, was watering trees at his job at a parking lot across from the Salvation Army Adult Rehabilitation Center when he overheard a vehicle honking at an armored Brink's truck on the corner.

“The car had pulled up next to the truck, like it had dropped something,” Joe said. “I look and I see this big orange bag, like a Santa Claus bag. I thought, ‘No way, it’s got to be clothes or something. Inside, I saw some of the money sticking out, individually wrapped stacks of $100s. It looked like deposits from businesses.’” Joe took the bag back to a nearby trailer and discovered the cash inside amounted to a whopping $125,000. He was conflicted momentarily over what to do with the money.

“I thought about it, it was a good-devil-bad-devil thing on your shoulder, but taking the money wouldn't compare to what my grandkids would think of me if I did something like that,” Joe said. “This shelter is trying to change my life. I tried to do the right thing.” So Joe took the bag of money to his supervisor at the shelter, who then notified police to return the cash. Brink's, the company that lost the money, plans on giving Joe a $5,000 reward, and the shelter a $5,000 donation. “Mr. Cornell did the right thing,” Brink's spokesman Ed Cunningham said. “For that, we are grateful.”

The very first law in the Shulchan Aruch (the Code of Jewish Law) states: “One should not be embarrassed and ashamed [to do the right thing] in front of those who scoff and poke fun at him”. We are constantly faced with situations where it's hard to discern exactly what path to follow.. The greatest, sweetest reward, is when we do the right thing.

Parshas Korach Numbers 16:1 - 18:32

This week's Torah portion begins with the infamous rebellion led by Korach against his cousins, Moses and Aaron, claiming that the two of them had usurped power from the rest of the Jewish people. Korach, motivated by jealousy and a desire for honor, rejected Moses' authority and claimed that the appointment of Aaron as Kohen Gadol (Head Kohen) was motivated by nepotism. Korach cleverly persuaded 250 judges and others from disaffected groups to become his followers in the rebellion.

A frequent theme in the Torah is: Sooner or later G-d always gets the last word. In Korach's case, it was sooner. What was the result of the rebellion? G-d made the earth open up to swallow Korach, the ringleaders of the rebellion, and their families. Fire consumed the remainder of the 250 rebels. The story of Korach's rebellion concludes with an act of reconciliation -- and surprisingly, a U.S. Presidential reference. The staffs of the leaders of the 12 tribes were placed near the Ark of the Covenant. To prove that the tribe of Levi and Aaron was Divinely chosen, Aaron's staff sprouted leaves, almond blossoms and even almonds. I suppose you could say that this miracle made AaronChief of Staff!

Rabbinic Ruminations

It may be time to update that old joke about the horse walking into a bar -- "Why the long face?" asks the bartender -- and give it a technological twist. Our growing reliance on smartphones and laptops is elongating our faces into jowly, sagging messes, according to cosmetic surgeons and other beauty mavens. Dr. Mervyn Patterson of the Woodford Medical Aesthetic Clinic in Essex, England has dubbed the look "smartphone face."

Dr. Patterson explains the ugly risks of too much time spent staring at our smartphones: "If you sit for hours with your head bent slightly forward, staring at your iPhone or laptop screen, you may shorten the neck muscles and increase the gravitational pull on the jowl area, leading to a drooping jawline." Other potential effects of a perpetually titled neck include double chins and marionette lines -- those creases that begin at the corners of the mouth and continue down to the chin. Smartphone face may be more serious than one would think. In 2012, the American Association of Plastic Surgeons reported that chin implants ("chinplants") were the fastest growing trend in cosmetic surgery.

While modern electronics may not be the only deciding factor of your chin definition and sculpted jaw, the danger of smartphone face is yet another reason to consider how much time you spend using technology versus truly engaging in the world around you. Go for a walk without your phone, have dinner without email, sit down and have a conversation in person or write a letter. Slow down, look up, and appreciate the world around you. After all, it's your world -- as the Talmud says, "Each person is obligated to say, 'The world was created for me.'" (Sanhedrin 37A)

Quote of the Week

Investing is simple, but not easy – Warren Buffet

Joke of the Week

An old man and a young man are traveling on the train. The young man asks: "Excuse me, what time is it?" The old man does not answer.

"Excuse me, sir, what time is it?" The old man keeps silent.

"Sir, I'm asking you what time is it. Why don't you answer?!"

The old man says: "Son, the next stop is the last on this route. I don't know you, so you must be a stranger. If I answer you now, I'll have to invite you to my home. You're handsome, and I have a beautiful daughter. You will both fall in love and you will want to get married. Tell me, why would I need a son-in-law who can't even afford a watch?"

The Deadline to submit new information to appear in our Shabbos Bulletin is Wednesday each week, at 12:00 noon. The bulletin is printed first thing every Thursday morning.
