Coming Events

- Shabbos HaGodol (The Great Sabbath, Saturday, April 16) - This is the Shabbat before Pesach. It commemorates the 10th day of Nissan, when the Hebrew slaves took the lambs that they were going to offer for Pesach and tied them up outside their homes, to keep until they offered them on the 14th of Nisan. This was a very dangerous thing to do, because Egyptians worshipped sheep; but miraculously, instead of slaughtering the Hebrews, the Egyptians fought with each other over whether the Hebrews should be sent away already. The special haftorah for this Shabbos is Malachi 3:4 - 3:24, which tells about the return of Elijah the prophet and the coming of the Messiah. We believe that Elijah will return at Pesach, and that is why we include a cup of wine for him at the seder.
- Dine-in Pizza Night (Sunday, April 17, 5:00 pm - 7:00 pm) - One day before Pesach, leave the Chometz cooking to us! There is no Pizza Night on the last Sunday of the April (during Pesach).
- Next Carry-Out Pizza Night (Wednesday, May 11) - There is no carry-out Pizza Night in April.
- Irvin Alper Social Club - There will be no meeting in April.
- NHBZ Sisterhood - There will be no events in April.
- NHBZ Women's Home Study Group (First Tuesday, May 3, 2:30 pm) - at the home of Jackie Berkin; Topic is "The Six Constant Mitzvos," presented by Rabbi Shaya Mintz, of the St. Louis Kollel; All women are welcome; please join us!!!
- Morris Lengua Yiddish Club (First Thursday, May 5, 7:30 pm) - Join us for a spirited hour filled with Yiddish stories, songs and laughter; seasoned "mavens" as well as novices are welcome.

Beyond Twelve Gates by Rabbi Ze'ev Smason

Beyond Twelve Gates' refers to a beautiful concept taught by the great mystic Rabbi Isaac Luria (1534-1572), also known as 'The Ari'. There exist twelve gates of prayer in Heaven — one for each tribe of Israel. There also exists a Heavenly thirteenth gate. Through this gate the prayers of all Jews, regardless of tribe, Jewish education or level of observance, are allowed to enter and are heard by G-d.

Welcome to Beyond Twelve Gates

Are you a visual illiterate? If so, Harvard Professor John Stilgoe's class may be just for you -- because looking around is exactly what he teaches. Stilgoe, who teaches the art of exploration, introduces his students to a method of discovering a hidden world that's always been right in plain view.

"I start by showing slides of things that they think they have seen, and it turns out they haven't seen. The white arrow that's on the side of every Fed Ex truck is a nice place to start. Almost everybody's seen a Federal Express truck, almost nobody's seen the white arrow," says Stilgoe. "Before they've learned to read, toddlers will see the arrow. And I've asked toddlers, 'Do you see the arrow on the truck?' And they usually do. The arrow is between the lower half of the capital E, and the X." Stilgoe says the arrow is just one of millions of things that are right in front of our eyes that we never notice.

The Torah identifies two types of miracles; the "great, public" miracles, and the "hidden" miracles. The first category includes the miracles of the Exodus, the ten plagues and the splitting of the Red Sea. The second category includes every other occurrence that affects us, those usually categorized as "natural," or as part of nature. We're surrounded by millions of small miracles, but often take them for granted. Let us learn to overcome our 'spiritual visual illiteracy' -- by taking notice of the abundance of small miracles around us.

Parshas Tazria: Metzora 14:1 - 15:33

Parshas Metzora discusses the purification process for the metzora. A metzora was a person inflicted with tzara'as - a skin or hair abnormality caused by certain spiritual illnesses. After the Kohen declares him to be pure, the metzora completes a ritual procedure using two birds, spring water in an earthen vessel, cedar wood, a scarlet thread and a bundle of hyssop. He is then allowed to enter the camp, but he must dwell outside of his tent for seven days. His impurity is now only contagious through direct contact, being considered a primary source of uncleanness. Before entering the camp, the metzora's entire body is shaved. After a seven-day wait, the person is shaved a second time, and on the eighth day, brings three animals and an oil offering to the Temple. With this, the purification process is completed.

The Torah offers an alternative for one who lacks the finances to participate in the prescribed offerings. The laws dealing with blemishes that appear on a house are detailed. The parsha concludes with other forms of contamination and their appropriate purification processes.

Rabbinic Ruminations

Can machines think? Since thinking' is difficult to define, a test was introduced by Alan Turing in 1950 to demonstrate a machine's ability to demonstrate intelligence.

Known as the Turing Test, a human judge engages in a natural language conversation with one human and one machine, each of which tries to appear human. All participants are separated from one another. If the judge cannot reliably tell the machine from the human, the machine is said to have passed the test. However, the concern was raised that since machines can't make mistakes, the machine could be easily unmasked by asking it a number of problems in arithmetic that it would answer with deadly accuracy.

The solution to this problem though, was simple; the machine should be programmed to occasionally give the wrong answers to the arithmetic problems. Artificial stupidity is a term used to refer to a technique of "dumbing down" computer programs in order to deliberately introduce errors in their responses.

Unlike machines, making mistakes comes natural to human beings. We all make mistakes. Who among us doesn't waste time, gossip, and fall short of the expectations that the Almighty has for each of us? Life is a constant challenge, and the fact that we all fail here and there does not mean the game is over. So long as we recognize G-d has something greater in mind for us

Quote of the Week

"I've missed more than 9000 shots in my career. I've lost almost 300 games. Twenty six times, I've been trusted to take the game-winning shot and missed. I've failed over and over and over again in my life. And that is why I succeed. - Michael Jordan, Basketball Pro

Joke of the Week

Chaim and Yankel are walking their dogs past the synagogue one Saturday morning. Chaim says, "Lets go in. I hear they have really nice chopped liver at their Shabbos Kiddush."

Yankel says, "They'll never let us in with the dogs."

"Just follow my lead," says Chaim, who then goes into the synagogue.

As he thought, the rabbi tells him, "No dogs are allowed."

"Chaim says, "But it's my seeing-eye dog."

The rabbi says, "Sorry, I didn't know. OK, you can go in."

Yankel follows. Again, the rabbi says, "No dogs are allowed."

Yankel says, "But it's my seeing eye-dog."

The rabbi says, "This is your seeing-eye dog? A chihuahua!"

Yankel looks startled and says, "They gave me a chihuahua?!?"

SOMETHING IMPORTANT TO THINK ABOUT: NHBZ's "Create a Legacy" Program

In 1905, a small group of visionaries invested time, energy and money to create our spiritual community. We must build a bridge from those visionaries to the families that will become our future legacy. Now is the time for you to guarantee a vibrant congregation for the next generation. By including NHBZ in your estate plan, you will ensure that our community will flourish. Be one of the visionaries for our future.
