Parshas Matos -- Masei

In the first of this week's two action-packed portions, Moses teaches the rules and restrictions governing oaths and vows. Promises are serious business. When we say that we plan to do something -- even something as simple as, 'I'll call you later' -- we're bound by our words. Anticipating entrance into the land of Israel, the tribes of Gad and Reuben petition Moses to remain on the eastern side of the Jordan River because that land is particularly suitable for grazing their cattle. Moses, not wanting to 'steer' Gad and Reuben wrong, grants their request on the condition that they first help the rest of the nation in conquering the entire land of Israel before returning to settle their inheritance. Masei (a word that means 'journeys') begins with a listing of the 42 encampments of the Jewish people's 40 year journey from the Exodus until the crossing of the Jordan River into the Land of Israel. The boundaries of the Land of Israel are defined. Since the Levites would not be receiving a regular portion of the land, 48 cities are set aside for them. Cities of refuge are established; one who unintentionally murders can flee there. So ends the book of Numbers, the fourth of the Books of the Torah. Next week -- on to Deuteronomy!

The 9 Days

Rosh Chodesh Av occurred on Friday, August 2. This began a period of time known as the '9 Days.' The first nine days of the month of Av, and also the morning of the tenth, are days of acute mourning for the destruction of the first and second Holy Temples. In addition to the restrictions that apply to the entire three-week period, during this time we refrain from the following additional joyous activities: Eating meat and drinking wine (except for Shabbos), laundering clothing, swimming or bathing for pleasure and remodeling or expanding a home. For questions or further details, please contact Rabbi Smason.

The Three Weeks

The Three Weeks is an annual mourning period that falls out in the summer. We mourn the destruction of the Holy Temple and our launch into a still-ongoing exile. The period began on the 17th of the Hebrew month of Tammuz, a fast day that marks the day when the walls of Jerusalem were breached by the Romans in 69 CE. The Fast of the 17th of Tammuz was observed Sunday, July 21.

Sunday, August 11 ~ 2 pm in the HMLC Theater ~ The Holocaust Museum & Learning Center will screen a special film commemorating Tisha B'Av, the ninth day of the Jewish month of Av, (12 Millstone Campus Drive, 63146). This date in the Hebrew calendar marks the destruction of both the first and second Temples in Jerusalem and several other tragic events in Jewish history.

Rabbi Ze'ev Smason of Nusach Hari-B'nai Zion Congregation will lead a discussion following the screening of “Defying the Nazis: The Sharps’ War” a 2016 documentary directed by Ken Burns and Artemis Joukowsky. This film presents the powerful, largely unknown story of Waitstill and Martha Sharp, an American minister and his wife from Wellesley, Massachusetts, who boldly committed to a life-threatening mission in Europe. Over two dangerous years they helped save dozens of refugees fleeing the Nazi occupation across Europe.

~ This Week's Torah Trivia ~

Last Week's Question: Pinchas committed a zealous act by killing Zimri and Cosbi. How is he punished?

Answer: He is rewarded with everlasting life and eventually given the Priesthood. Huge discussion on this.

This Week's Question: Masai speaks of the cities of refuge. How many were initially established and what was their purpose?

Torah Campaign Giving Levels

There are many ways to participate in the writing of the NHBZ TORAH. You can make dedications in honor of family members or friends, in memory of loved ones, to commemorate a special occasion, your birthday, an anniversary, Bnai Mitzvah, or life cycle event. Consider including your children and grandchildren in the writing of our Sefer Torah so that they, too, can fulfill the Mitzvah. When the Torah is nearly complete, we will have a completion and dedication ceremony at NHBZ on Sunday, December 8.

Please reserve the following dedications by circling your choice(s) and filling in your selections on the Order Form (prices are for each individual item, but you may select more than one of an item):

1. One complete book of the Five Books of the Torah..... $5400
2. Beginning or ending verses of the Torah $5000

The Grass is Greener on the Other Side -by Rabbi Eli Scheller

This week's portion summarizes the entire route followed by the Jews from when they left Egypt until they were ready to enter Eretz Yisrael. It begins, "Moshe wrote their going forth according to their journeys." At the end of that same verse this idea is repeated, but the words are reversed: "And these were their journeys according to their going forth." Why is the order switched?

The beginning of the verse expresses how Hashem regarded their travels. Whenever G-d wanted them to go forth He wanted them to progress to the next step in His plan, to journey toward their destiny. Every stop was custom-made, tailored to help them towards their goal. Each place came with challenges developing the nation's character. However, the second verse looks at the traveling from the nation's point of view. The people saw things differently. It is human nature for one to think that he would be much happier and more productive if only he were somewhere else. They would journey simply to go forth, hoping it would be better in their next destination, hoping it would have more to offer, but not because they were thinking of reaching their purpose.

It is common to think, "If only I was in a different school, if only I lived someplace else, if only, if only, if only ... I would be so much more productive." But the truth is that the exact situation that you are in has been designed especially for you, to help you achieve your full potential. According to the Chofetz Chaim this principle is reflected in G-d's words to Moshe: "The place on which you stand is holy ground." Despite all its difficulties, the situation that you are in – right here and right now, is holy, and this is the time and place where you are able to grow. You don't need to go anywhere else. Furthermore, the grass only looks greener on the other side because you are looking at it from a distance. You don't see any of the blotches and cracks since the grass is covering them. All you see is beautiful green grass. However when you actually go there, you then see all the blemishes and all the breaks. It is not the same grass you saw from afar! Any school you attend or any place you live has its own obstacles and difficulties to overcome. Therefore, a person has to train himself to be happy in the present situation and not constantly look "over the fence"!
