Parshas Re'eh

Moses informs the Jewish people that we each face a choice; choose to observe G-d's directions for living (i.e. the Torah) and receive blessings, or choose to ignore G-d and experience estrangement and its consequences. Moses then turns to describing a number of religious, civil and social laws relevant once the Jewish people enter the Promised Land. Included in this listing are:

- Don't imitate the ways of the nations surrounding you
- A false prophet who attempts to entice you to idolatry should be put to death
- Since the Torah is complete and perfect, nothing may be added to or subtracted from it
- Self-infliction of wounds on the body as a sign of mourning is prohibited
- As a holy people, refrain from eating non-kosher food
- Be particularly warm-hearted and charitable. Many laws and guidelines concerning tzedaka (righteous giving) are found in this week's portion
- The three pilgrimage festivals (Passover, Shavous and Sukkos) are opportunities to ascend (make Aliyah) to Jerusalem and the Temple to celebrate our blessings

~ This Week's Torah Trivia ~

Last Week's Question: A very famous saying comes from this parsha that is even used today. What is it?

Answer: "Man does not live by bread alone ... but by all that comes out of God's mouth" (Deut.8:3).

This Week's Question: In Re'eh we find the section which will make a missionary cringe and stop trying to convert Jews. What is it?

Summer is nearly over, and Rosh Hashanah is just around the corner!

It is time to review and update the reserved seating chart for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. According to our By-Laws, each "Synagogue member shall be entitled to one seat for the High Holidays". We have reserved seats for Full Members so that they can sit with friends and family, and so they can come and go throughout services while being assured that they can return to the same seat. To guarantee that you have a seat reserved for you, please make sure that your dues are paid or that you have a payment plan in place.

If you are a new Full Member this year, we will assign you a reserved seat for the holidays. If you want to sit in a particular location - front, back, side, near a friend or relative please contact Jeff in the office, and we will try to accommodate your preference.

If you were a Full Member last year and were satisfied with your seat, you will most likely have the same seat this year. If you would like to change your seat, please contact Jeff in the office at 314-991-2100, ext. 2.

On Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur, we will display the reserved seating chart in the lobby, along with an alphabetical cross-reference list to help you find your seat. Before entering the Sanctuary, please find your name and seat number on the cross-reference, and then look up your seat number on the chart to find its location. Greeters will be available to help you if needed.

Visitors, Friends and Associate Members may sit in any of the seats which have not been reserved, and they should refrain from sitting in a member's reserved seat. Unreserved seats are marked as 'Available' on the seating charts.

Torah Campaign Giving Levels

There are many ways to participate in the writing of the NHBZ TORAH. You can make dedications in honor of family members or friends, in memory of loved ones, to commemorate a special occasion, your birthday, an anniversary, Bnai Mitzvah, or life cycle event. Consider including your children and grandchildren in the writing of our Sefer Torah so that they, too, can fulfill the Mitzvah. When the Torah is nearly complete, we will have a completion and dedication ceremony at NHBZ on Sunday, December 8.

Please reserve the following dedications by circling your choice(s) and filling in your selections on the Order Form (prices are for each individual item, but you may select more than one of an item):

1. One complete book of the Five Books of the Torah..... $5400
2. Beginning or ending verses of the Torah $5000

8. Letter(s) in the Torah $36

If you have email, you should have received an email announcement containing this same letter with a link to the 2018 Book of Remembrance if you wish to review the names you listed last year.
