Parshas Shoftim

Moses proceeds to review the regulations necessary for a civilized society. Local judges and officers were to be appointed in every city, and justice was to be administered righteously and impartially. A bribe of even a small sum is forbidden. The Sanhedrin -- the Jewish High Court of seventy one judges -- is to make Torah-based binding decisions on new situations to prevent the fragmentation of the Jewish people. When the Jewish people request a king, the king was not to misuse his power to amass horses, maintain a harem nor accumulate great wealth. To order his priorities and not become haughty he should write a copy of the Torah and carry it with him. When the Jewish people had righteous kings such as David and Solomon, it was a blessing. When we had wicked kings such as Jereboam and Ahav, it was a curse.

The nation's conduct in war is mentioned. The Jewish people are told not to be afraid of the enemy, not to destroy any fruit trees in battle, and that they should first give the enemy a chance to make peace. The portion also forbids all forms of superstition and 'magic' practiced by the soothsayer. We have no need for such tricks because of our true prophets and faith in G-d. The Jewish people are promised by G-d that He will send prophets to guide them, and Moses explains how a genuine prophet may be distinguished from a false one.

Cash Cards

Orders are now being taken through the 15th of the month. Use the card for all your shopping needs. The order form is attached to this week's bulletin. You probably will be shopping at Amazon, Dierbergs, CVS, or Walgreens this month, so why not benefit NHBZ as you shop?

The Month of Elul

In the month of Elul we begin to recite Psalm 27 in the Shacharis and Mincha (morning and afternoon) services. Psalm 27 begins with the words "To David: The L-rd is my light and my salvation." The Midrash tells us that "my light" (אורִי) is associated with Rosh Hashanah and "my salvation" (יְשׁוּעָי) is associated with Yom Kippur. We also find that a later verse in the Psalm, "That He will hide me in His tabernacle . . ." (כִּי יִצְפֶּנִי בְּטֶכְנִי), is associated with Sukkos. In this Psalm, King David exclaims: "One thing I ask... is to dwell in the house of God all the days of my life." We focus on the unifying force of G-d in our lives, and strive to increase our connection to Him as we begin the month of Elul.

NHBZ is forming a buddy system for those who would like to have a "buddy" help guide them through the Siddur and Chumash during services. We are looking for those who can serve as the "Buddy" and those looking for assistance. Please contact Alan Zarkowsky through the office at 991-2100.

~ This Week's Torah Trivia ~

Last Week's Question: In Re'eh we find the section which will make a missionary cringe and stop trying to convert Jews. What is it?

Answer: Deuteronomy 13:1-12 If there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and giveth thee a sign or a wonder, etc..... READ IT FOR YOURSELF

This Week's Question: What big idea is found at the beginning of this sedrah?

Rosh Hashanah is just around the corner!

It is time to review and update the reserved seating chart for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. According to our By-Laws, each "Synagogue member shall be entitled to one seat for the High Holidays". We have reserved seats for Full Members so that they can sit with friends and family, and so they can come and go throughout services while being assured that they can return to the same seat. To guarantee that you have a seat reserved for you, please make sure that your dues are paid or that you have a payment plan in place.

If you are a new Full Member this year, we will assign you a reserved seat for the holidays. If you want to sit in a particular location - front, back, side, near a friend or relative please contact Jeff in the office, and we will try to accommodate your preference.

If you were a Full Member last year and were satisfied with your seat, you will most likely have the same seat this year. If you would like to change your seat, please contact Jeff in the office at 314-991-2100, ext. 2.

On Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur, we will display the reserved seating chart in the lobby, along with an alphabetical cross-reference list to help you find your seat. Before entering the Sanctuary, please find your name and seat number on the cross-reference, and then look up your seat number on the chart to find its location. Greeters will be available to help you if needed.

Torah Campaign Giving Levels

There are many ways to participate in the writing of the NHBZ TORAH. You can make dedications in honor of family members or friends, in memory of loved ones, to commemorate a special occasion, your birthday, an anniversary, Bnai Mitzvah, or life cycle event. Consider including your children and grandchildren in the writing of our Sefer Torah so that they, too, can fulfill the Mitzvah. When the Torah is nearly complete, we will have a completion and dedication ceremony at NHBZ on Sunday, December 8.

Please reserve the following dedications by circling your choice(s) and filling in your selections on the Order Form (prices are for each individual item, but you may select more than one of an item):

1. One complete book of the Five Books of the Torah..... $5400
2. Beginning or ending verses of the Torah ..... $5000
3. Special Torah Selections ..... $2500

Your favorite or significant selection

4. Weekly Torah Portions(s) – Sedra(s) ..... $1800
5. Yom Tov / Special Holiday Torah Portion(s) ..... $1000

Each year before Yom Kippur, NHBZ offers two ways to memorialize your loved ones. You can list their names in our annual Book of Remembrance and you can add their names to the List of Names Read Aloud during the recitation of the Yizkor prayer, or both.

We are starting to work on the Book of Remembrance now and ask that you complete the enclosed form and return it us by September 10th. You may also call Jeff at 991-2100 Ext. 2 or email jeff@nhbz.org to complete your form.

The Book of Remembrance is used throughout the year for Yom Kippur, Shemini Atzeres, Passover and Shavuot, after which you may take one home.

If you have email, you should have received an email announcement containing this same letter with a link to the 2018 Book of Remembrance if you wish to review the names you listed last year.

Wake Up / Elul is Here

Elul is the 12th and final month in the Jewish calendar.

It is a month that connects the past year with the coming year—a time when we reflect on where we stand and where we should be going. The theme of Elul is return to your essential self, a.k.a. teshuvah. In this month, the "King is in the Field," and G-d is readily accessible, willing to hear our requests and listen to our fervent prayers for the coming new year. Every day of Elul we blow the shofar and recite special Psalms in anticipation of the High Holidays, Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.

TIPS FOR ROSH HASHANAH

By Alyssa Rachel Gross

How to get closer to your best self this New Year.

- 1 If not now, when?
It's never the perfect time to change an ingrained habit. Don't wait for a magical moment or to hit rock bottom. Start today.
- 2 Gradual steps
Stop trying to change everything all at once. Make an ironclad commitment to one action.
- 3 Write down your goals
Write it down, type it out, or text yourself your goals for the month or the year. Not only will you have a daily anchor to review but you will also have a benchmark for success.
- 4 Tell someone
Let someone (or a few) know that you're making a change. You'll gain support and accountability. And once you see them rooting you on, you won't want to let them down.
- 5 Break it down
If you want to supercharge an area of your life, break it down into an actionable set of steps. Instead of saying "I'd like to get healthy", write down "no sugar in my coffee" or "1 hour at the gym on Monday and Wednesdays."
- 6 Focus on the rose
Keep your eye on what you're working towards rather than on what you are giving up. Every rose has its thorns. Focus on the rose.

Be kind to yourself

Forgive yourself when you slip up. Talk to yourself as you would a good friend or your child, expressing compassion, understanding and inspiration to jump back on the horse.
