Learning at NHBZ

- Parashas Tetzaveh – By Rabbi Smason

This week's portion is a haberdasher's dream. Following on the heels of the elaborate details of the construction of the Mishkan, G-d describes to Moses the special garments which are to be worn by the Kohanim during their service. The ordinary Kohanim would wear four special garments, while four additional vestments were to be worn exclusively by the Kohen Gadol (High Priest). All of these garments were woven and crafted from materials donated by the people. The Torah portion then shifts its attention to G-d's commandments regarding the inauguration ritual for the newly constructed Mishkan, to be performed exclusively by Moses for seven days. The inauguration included Moses' adorning and anointing the Kohanim, and his bringing offerings. On the eighth day, Aaron and his sons would assume their offices as the Kohanim. After then describing the daily offering to be brought in the Mishkan, in the morning and afternoon, the portion concludes with the command to build the last of the Mishkan's structures, the golden altar upon which the incense would be offered twice daily.

Ask Our Rabbis

Q. At NHBZ, why do we make Kiddush while sitting down at the tables, with each table set with food? I have been to a number of other shuls and they have a different setup.

A. It is not the place of this column to comment on the practice of other shuls. We will describe what we do at NHBZ. There is a Halachic concept known as Kiddush B'Makom Seudah, Kiddush in the Location of the Meal (Pesachim 101a). This means that Kiddush needs to be recited in the location where food will be consumed. In this context, any grain-based dish over which the Mezonos blessing would be recited or a Reviis (approximately 3.4 fluid ounces) of wine or grape juice is sufficient, and a meal in the formal sense of the word is not required.

Additionally, the concept of Kiddush B'makom Seudah informs us that any food that will be eaten on Shabbos/Yom Tov should only be consumed shortly after Kiddush has been recited, although it is beyond the scope of this piece to discuss at which point the obligation of Kiddush begins. The preferable way consuming the food accompanying Kiddush should be while sitting at a table in the manner in which a dignified meal is eaten. It should be noted that anyone who can hear Kiddush being recited in the room in which Kiddush is being recited from beginning to end is considered to be B'Makom Seudah.
