Daily Minyan Moving Back Downstairs

Beginning with Shacharis on Wednesday, May 1st (the day after Pesach) our daily minyan will move back to our Chapel on the lower level. That's Shacharis Sunday through Friday mornings and Mincha/Maariv Sunday through Thursday evenings. Shabbos and Yom Tov will remain upstairs in our main Sanctuary.

Shacharis times remain the same: Sunday at 8:00 am, Monday through Friday at 7:00 am and Shabbos/Yom Tov at 9:00 am. Check the bulletin for Mincha/Maariv times. (It's always a good idea to double check the time due to occasional necessary changes.)

Thank you to everyone who helps maintain our daily minyan. If you are not yet part of this exceptional, wonderful group, please join us. Let Rabbi Bogopulsky, Howard Sandler, or Alan Zarkowsky know which minyanim we can count on you attending. Whether you attend every minyan or once a week, everyone is welcomed and greatly appreciated.

Minyan Minute:

What is “Minyan Minute”? The Minyan Minute provides insight to our members about our minyanim. The goal is to enlighten, educate, and motivate others to join us. Please come and fulfill the important mitzvah of praying with a minyan. You will be surprised by the unexpected benefits.

We had 17 men at morning minyan on Thursday, April 11th. Hoping to see that trend continue this spring.

Welcome back to Jon Newman from his travels to Israel. Glad to have you back to our minyan. Wishing Tony Granillo much success in his new career moves and we will miss you at morning minyan.

We are all very happy to welcome our new minyan men – Toby Warticovschi and Shimon Ohana. Chag Pesach Sameach!

Happy Passover

"The Exodus is the inexhaustible source of inspiration to all those who long for freedom. It taught that right was sovereign over might; that freedom and justice must belong to all, not some; and that, under God, all human beings are equal. It took many centuries for this vision to become the shared property of the liberal democracies of the West; and there is no guarantee it will remain so. Freedom is a moral achievement, and without a constant effort of education it atrophies and must be fought for again." – Rabbi Lord Jonathan Sacks z"l
